COURSE DESCRIPTION

M-JOY INTEGRATIVE Invitation To PLAY and EXPERIENCE

Come PLAY in the WE Experience! Activate True Authentic Power (TAP) from the field of the heart as a catalyst for interactive reality creation, manifestation, and experience. Immerse yourself and integrate in 24 Fields of Flow, Fulfillment, Abundance, and Joy as an everyday, every-way experience.

Command Field Flow

Everything is You in relation to...Everything. Join Melissa Joy and other heart-minded individuals in a shared Love Hologram to discover the power of commanding Field Flow so you may consistently choose your resonant experience. Just Choose.

Many life experiences are the result of the Fields we are in resonance with. When we resonate in fields of fear, lack, separation, and limitation, our lives will reflect accordingly. When we resonate in fields of love, abundance, unity and expansion, our lives mirror this, too.

M-Joy Integrative Seminar*

Commanding Field Flow is more than a change of vibrational frequency. In this seminar we will map the art and science of commanding Field Flow to transform all that we relate to and experience. Change our Field resonance in the Love Hologram and everything can change.

Heart of it All

'M-Joy Integrative' focuses on commanding the power of the field of the heart (heart-centered awareness) and Information Fields that flow into the experience of reality. Experience a complete way of Being and Relating that enables you to consistently mind your state in a state of love that you do not mind at All.

This interactive experiential seminar is about more than developing positive thoughts and beliefs, because WE are much more than thoughts or beliefs. We are the Heart of it All, unified with everything. We are consciousness in action expressing as interconnected waves of grace. We are patterns of light streaming through fields of information torsioned together through the hologram of love. We are light. We are torsion fields. We are eternally spiraling and when we change our spin, we change our experience.

Limitations as Springboards

We are indeed limitless beings, and yet we may continue to encounter limitations in our lives. Though limitations are not inherently good or bad, how we "relate" to limitations often creates dissatisfaction, confusion, and a lack of Joy in Being.

Even if we are having experiences that might look and feel like limitations, we are still not truly limited by these experiences. Learn to recognize that all limitations can serve as platforms for awareness, springboards to launch us on a trajectory toward the realization of our true magnificence.

True Authentic Self (TAS)

Conscious integration of limitless potential with the perceived experience of limitations is the liberating experience of embodying True Authentic Self (TAS). This experience is not fantasy. This fanTAStic experience is an available reality when we Open awareness to it. Choose to Open to TAS and connect to 24 Fields of Love.

Everything Is Connection

This seminar enables resonant recognition of our inherent completion, noticed and experienced through connection with 24 Fields of Love. Connect with True Authentic Self (TAS), experience True Authentic Relating, and discover the power of inherent creative intelligence to manifest True Authentic Desires into actualized experiences. Master the manifestation process.

Integration

Embody completion by integrating sacred feminine and masculine aspects of oneself through powerful Information Fields. This integration as completion is realized as an every day experience that is not exclusively sacred, nor exclusively feminine or masculine. WE are All-inclusive. The experience of integration IS the experience of embodying who we truly are, not how we have been conditioned to be. We are already complete. Integration is recognition of completion. Integration is inclusion. Integration is the power to choose how to spin with Joy in our shared love hologram.

Platforms for Creation and Placeholders

By interacting, integrating, playing with, and experiencing twenty-four powerful Fields of Love shared in this seminar, we enter into recognition and acceptance of our ability to peacefully and joyfully thrive as limitless beings having experiences that appear as limitations. We will recognize that limitations are not really limiting; rather, limitations are direct extensions of that limitless nature that is our core essence. Limitations and limitlessness are not separate—they are connected, as everything is.

M-Joy Integrative Seminar*

With this recognition of connection, we will notice limitations as placeholders. Limitations as placeholders may resemble problems, conditions, and dis-eases. However, at the level of holographic interactive reality creation, we realize everything as simply fields of information that we may be resonating with (or connected to), thus creating specific experiences.

Physics of Personal Power

When we unplug our connection to grids of limitation, or modify our resonance and choose a different connection, there is a physics that supports the unfolding of a completely different experience. Thus, through the twenty-four Fields shared in this seminar, we are invited to reclaim and amplify personal power so we can create and manifest extraordinary lives.

Personal power is not power over anything or anyone. Personal power is an inner stance and dance with grace. Personal power is a function of establishing a coherent connection to our limitless potential, through the unified heart, and then congruently aligning awareness with fields of love that allow for flow, flexibility, freedom, joy, abundance, and authenticity to unfold in all that we experience.

WE Experience as Community

Personal power is not a me experience. Personal power is a WE experience. Personal power is a function of unifying grace that is inclusive, collaborative, and communal. Personal power is relational, where we optimally express ourselves as authentic individuals in community (calm-unity), and that which benefits one benefits all.

Spiralglyphics

'Spiralglyphics' is a language of love, light, and spin shared and experienced in M-Joy Teachings. This language is not necessarily something to comprehend only with the mind. Rather, this language of unity and inner knowing is something to be revealed and experienced as an ongoing dance with the universe, spun through the eternal gateway of the boundless heart.

Come embody this information as a Whole way of being and experiencing your Love Hologram. Re-discover You in relation to...Everything. Reclaim the Joy Of Being as authenticity and integrity.

PLAY in Fields of Love

Embrace True Authentic Power and Leverage 24 Holographic Fields of Love to create, relate, and integrate All experiences.

This class is open to EveryOne. Presence and curiosity are all that is required for you to benefit from this seminar. These Fields will meet us wherever WE are in our journey of interactive reality creation to provide a foundation of expansion. Come PLAY in this dynamic ever-evolving life transforming seminar. See you soon and Always in our shared Love Hologram!

In-Joy!
